

Mythos Junction

K D Nelson

Is this the end of life, as Nika knows it? Captured and separated in the most dangerous part of the enchanted lands, Nika is helpless without Arrow. Her friends are scattered and the death of a companion overwhelms them. They must learn how to mix fire with water in order to survive the treachery of their ruthless enemies who have multiplied, with a fury that no other has ever lived to tell the tale. Justice Trail, book one, left death creeping over Nikas body, Reawakening Oath, book two, crippled their most powerful protector and now that safety and hope for a better future are within grasp, is it possible that they can reach it before everything comes crashing down on them?
